YANKEES TAKE 8,000 GERMANS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—American troops, operating in the St. Mihiel sector made considerable gains today, Gen. Pershing reported in his communique to the War Department late tonight. Already 8000 prisoners have been counted, and the movement is in progress. The statement follows:

"Headquarters American Expeditionary Forces, Sept. 12, 1918.

"Section A: This morning our troops, operating in the St. Mihiel sector, made considerable gains. Assisted by French units, they broke the enemy's resistance and advanced at some points to a depth of five miles. We have counted 8000 prisoners up to the present. The operation is still in progress."

[BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE]
WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Sixteen months of vast war effort by the United States reached its first goal today when Gen. Pershing's forces struck their first independent blow in France against the German army.
Reports tonight show that success was meeting the American commander's effort to sling the enemy out of the sharp salient thrust in behind the fortress of Verdun in

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE LORRAINE FRONT, Sept. 12,
6 p.m.—St. Mihiel has been recaptured by the French, according to the unofficial information here. The Germans made a desperate resistance at Fort Roman, which the French attacked with vigor.

NDATED WAR SUMMARY OF ASSOCIATED PRESS.
RIS, Sept. 12.—The first big American offen-
-sive, which began at daybreak today between the Meuse
-and Sambre rivers, was conducted under Gen. Pershing's
-supervision and was executed under orders of -American officers with American soldiers. This was
-a distinctly American operation of a major char-acter, launched on the western front.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—With French and American troops striking on a wide front south and east of Verdun today the greatest battle, perhaps the decisive struggle of the war, may have begun. Early reports show this first employment of Gen. Pershing's new army is on a wide front, the French and American thrust cov-

American divisions known to be in the positions from which the attack has been launched included the veteran First and Second divisions of the old regular army, the first American units to get into action in France; the Eighty-ninth National Army Division, composed of Kansas, Missouri, South Dakota, Nebraska, Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona troops, and the Eighty-second National Army Division, composed of Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee troops, with the Thirty-seventh National Guard Division, composed of Ohio

The scope of the present action is not yet clear. It is strongly believed by officials, however, that it is only the prelude to a great effort to turn the whole German line and possibly to cut so deeply into his positions along the Verdun front that he might be compelled to abandon much territory in Alsace and Lorraine.

The American First Army, under command of Gen. Pershing, is in action against the Germans on a twenty-mile front on the famous St. Mihiel salient in Lorraine, which had stood a sharp wedge in the French line southeast of Verdun since the commencement

In the preliminary thrust ground was gained on both sides of the triangle and also at its apex at St. Mihiel and at last accounts the Americans, with whom some French troops are brigaded, were fast sweeping across the salient in an effort to close the mouth of the big pocket before the Germans can extricate themselves from the perilous position they are in as a result of the fall of the big cities.

the suddenness of the blow and the element of surprise it carried with it.

Although the advance of the Americans was swift and sure and gains in excess of four miles on the southern side of the battle area were made, the cavalry far outstripped the tanks and footmen and was last reported along the railroad near Vigneulles, almost in the center of the salient and some ten miles northeast of St. Mihiel, and also northwest of Pont-a-Dousson, through the forests and along the railway line running northward to Metz, the great German fortress, the southern outer fortifications

Englishmen and eleven French citizens have been arrested and imprisoned in the fortress of St. Peter. St. Paul in Petrograd, according to apparently reliable information received here today from the Russian city.

The Englishmen incarcerated include R. H. B. Lockhart, the British Consul-General at Moscow, who was condemned to death by the Bolshevik government, but who escaped execution as the result of the intervention of all the neutral diplomatic representatives.

Russian White Guards have found an unexpected front in the Arzamas district of the province of Nizhni Novgorod, according to a dispatch from Moscow. Six districts in that province have united against the Russian Soviet government.

The peasants of Kasan are arming against the Bolsheviks, and the dispatch adds, Soviet forces are being formed to suppress the revolt.

Reports from Kiev report that the peasants in revolt have wiped out the German garrison in the village of Brusilovka.

A dispatch to the Moscow Krasnaya Gazette from Vologda, government of Petrograd, says that the peasants were driven by the Germans near Meshigorsk, but assembled near Meshigorsk, and engaged in a singular fight with the Germans, and great losses were sustained by both sides.

TUMULTY HIGH.Republican Chairman Cites
Partisan Politics.Shows Wilson Name was Used in Army Camps."Infamous Prostitution of Patriotic Proprieties."(By A. P. DAY WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the National Republican Committee, replying today to a message from Secretary Tammany, said it was not true that he said to Republican State chairmen in Chicago recently that the Democratic leaders at Washington "would even end the war with any kind of compromise if that would insure continuance of the Democratic party's power."

"I did not use the words quoted in your telegram," said the letter. "What I said then, which I now reaffirm, and which I shall continue to declare, was substantially as follows:

"First, as to the means resorted to by certain Democratic leaders to get votes, I said:

"In the special election in Wisconsin the Democratic machine leaders published advertisements, undoubtedly since them, addressed to the soldiers at Camp Grant, as follows:

"To the Wisconsin soldiers at Camp Grant:

"Tuesday, April 2:

"You are entitled to vote for United States Senator from Wisconsin to succeed Senator Paul O. Huting."

"President Wilson, your Commander in Chief, desires all American to do their duty to their country. Dr. Daniel, for United States Senator:

"Daniel's election means joy at Washington and gloom at Berlin."

"Daniel's defeat means gloom at Washington and joy at Berlin."

"Daniel's defeat means gloom of the plainest civil duty, worthy of the severest condemnation of all Americans."

"It is evident, and I regret to say it, that these Democratic leaders will go to any lengths to carry the Senate and House."

Concluding his letter, Mr. Hays said:

"I now take the opportunity to appeal to you directly and to the Democratic organization, to join with us in our efforts to keep participation out of the war and the war out of partisan politics."

DRAFT WINNOWINGS; WHO REGISTERED AND OTHER INCIDENTS OF THE DAY.

MR. JOHN F. MERTZ of Indianapolis yesterday notified all the local exemption boards to deny exemption to her husband, John Mertz, who, she says, kidnapped their son Thomas, aged 6, after the courts had awarded her the custody of the child. She says the father spirited the boy away from their home some weeks ago and she thinks he came to the Pacific Coast.

In city district No. 9, of the 228 men that registered up to 4 p.m., 143 of the 201 over 32 years of age were married.

The unfortunate under the ban of the law confined in the County Jail are 100 per cent. patriotic. 225 inmates registering for the draft work was "caused by the management of E. L. Oker, police detective, and the prisoners were not only willing but eager to show that their hearts are in the right place in the great crisis."

Registration of prisoners at the City Jail was in charge of the war squad of the Central Police Station. Fifty men were registered at the Central Station and thirty-five at the East Jail. All other police officers also registered ten men at Crocker-street Hospital, four at the Clara Barton Hospital and ten at the Good Samaritan Hospital. Officer H. G. Sauer was sent out by request of the State Highway Commission to the ridge route road to register seventy-five men on the road, as otherwise they would lose two days' time.

A contrasting scene was at the Huntley apartments, where, in the open air of a plaza, volunteer registrars stood and called in the afternoon on citizens in the houses of the place and carried on their work. Joseph S. Wilson, a second cousin by his father of Betsy Ross, who had eighty-eight engagements in the Civil War, was twice wounded, held a registrar's pen. He registered Joseph Vessell, 54 years old, an Austrian by birth, but a citizen of the United States. Vessell said he "would have been in the fight against Germany long ago had it not been for his babies."

At subdivision No. 18 of board No. 17 a man 54 years old tried to pass himself off as 41 years in order to get in the draft. After a long argument he admitted to the registrar that he was 56, but wanted to fight the Kaiser. In another case a woman thought her son to be a registrant and asked if he could register and say he was 18 years old, although he is but 17. The son wanted to go.

At the Sentous and Pico Intermediate school, R. A. Thompson, the principal, and the teachers took turns at aiding in registration work. One of the first men to register at this place was Eddie Miller, brewer and small business man. The present parents of pupils in the school registered, though the pupils were not quite old enough.

Paul Shoup, president of the Pacific Electric, registered at Woodbury and 11th. Mr. Shoup gave his age as 44. Another man to register at this place was Howard Eckert Hiltz, 21 years old, an heir of the Biltz estate of $1,000,000. Mr. Hiltz gave his height as 4 feet 7 inches. The first man to register at this place was one who came in on two crutches.

Arriving at this registration place, Charles Blakesley Smith of the firm of Golden State Food Products Company, and his son, Leon Clother Smith, 21, a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, registered together. Mr. Smith, who is in the engineering business, gave his age as 44

So great was the registration at San Pedro that all registration was stopped at noon for four hours until more cards could be printed.

The total registration in that precinct was 2286. Nearly 1000 Japanese registered in the district.

Board No. 8, of which J. J. Shields is chairman, had anticipated a registration of 2300, but figures last night showed that 2325 had registered. The registration was 1000. Fifty-five clerks were kept busy all day at the headquarters at Exposition Building, and at the outside places.
